

Frank C. Munson, of New York, and Clarence M. Woodley, of Chicago.

In the Council of National Defense there are many Republicans, including Walter S. Gifford, of Massachusetts, chairman, and Grosvenor B. Clarkson, of New York, secretary. Others are A. W. Shaw, Michigan, chairman of the Commercial Economy Board; Roy D. Chapin, Michigan, chairman of the Highway Transportation Committee; L. A. Coolidge, Massachusetts, chairman of the Committee on Welfare Work; Dr. Franklin Martin, Illinois, chairman of the General Medical Board; Robert S. Brookings, Missouri, War Industries Board; Dr. Hollis Godfrey, Pennsylvania, Commissioner of the University Section and Secondary School Section; George N. Peek, Illinois, Industrial Representative of the War Industries Board; George F. Porter, Illinois, chairman of the section on Coöperation with States; Howard E. Coffin, Michigan, chairman of the Aircraft Board, and Julius Rosenwald, Chicago, a member of the Advisory Commission.

RED CROSS OFFICIALS

The Red Cross War Council is largely made up of Republicans. In addition to former President Taft, Republican members of this important body include Henry P. Davison, New York, chairman; Cornelius N. Bliss, New York, former Treasurer of the Republican National Committee, and Charles D. Norton, of New York, secretary to Mr. Taft when he was President.

The Federal Fuel Administrator, as is well known, is Dr. Harry A. Garfield, son of former President Garfield. Dr. Garfield always was a Republican until he supported President Wilson for election.

While never active in politics, Herbert Hoover, the Federal Food administrator, always voted the Republican ticket during his residence in California.
